Perry Beadleton and G. M. Heekschel for Meadowbrook.

An extra period of play was required, the Pennsylvanians scoring after two minutes of play in the ninth chukker.

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., Sept. 2.—West Point's polo team, made up of officers recently returned from abroad, will cross mallets to-morrow on the internawere then divided into groups, the backfield men working on passes and kicks while the forwards were given a long line scrimmage. Three groups of fourteen linemen under the supervision of Coaches Gargan, Wall and Cussack were busy, while Howard Cann put the backs through their paces.

The backfield is now well organized with the exception of Ferguson, who has not as yet returned. He is practically certain of regaining his old place at quarterback, and will have for his running mates Captain Weiheimmer. Bates and Cadell. These men are being pressed hard for the places by Nelson and Robinson, both kickers of some ability.
